

The Secret Power of the Rosary

Excerpts from this new book

Dictated by Our Lady to Barbara Kloss (A Polish Mystic)

Motto: "Jesus desires that I should be more known and more loved."

(from the apparitions in Fatima)

"I am all in the Rosary, look for Me there – there you will find Me."

1 The Rosary should be the joy of your hearts, the brightness of your thoughts, the desire of your will, the link joining and connecting you with heaven; it should be a bottomless mine of treasures, which I give to you through my Immaculate Hands hidden in them. From you should come only the will of receiving it and reciting it, the offering of time, a humble and prayerful disposition and a bit of effort in concentration and recitation. Do not begrudge this, or push it aside, that somehow it will fit in the last quarter of the day. The rest that is everything else – is the action of the Holy Spirit, which lets us recognize the Savior in His Mysteries; and gives love to the Father, which brings about that souls all ablaze with the embers of the love of God, become receptive to embrace and immerse oneself in the love of God. And then the words of the Son of God become true: "The kingdom is within you. A kingdom that is everlasting and universal, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace. A kingdom of justice, love, and peace." (Preface for the Feast of Christ the King.)

2 The Rosary is an inexhaustible treasure of countless Graces of God in the Holy Trinity. But, in order to profit from the Rosary, faith is needed which quickly changes into an experience of joy. The Rosary is Mine and it demands humility, because it gives what I desire, not according to your will and your desires. The Rosary is yours. It is given to you forever. It is given for every moment and for all your necessities; it depends on you to take advantage of it, to use it effectively. It demands fidelity and perseverance – The Rosary is for all, who are captives of Our Hearts – My Son's and Mine. He unites all those living on earth – who respect and love Him – and those who already are in triumph – by virtue of a common victory.

3 The Rosary is a gift purchased by the blood of my Son. If such is its origin, and it has such a seal, let nothing surprise you by the opposition in recognizing, receiving and spreading it, because the battle against it is carried on by the devil, the world and the flesh simultaneously. "Set me like a seal to your heart." Here the point is, that everyone should have their favorite mystery – for a certain period of time – so that after reciting a Rosary, let them think often on that Mystery, because it alone will enlighten, straighten out and deepen many things in the soul. With the Rosary, it is easier to knock at the gates of God's Mercy.

4 Jesus desires that I be better known and loved (Apparition at Fatima), and I desire that the Heart of My Triumphant Son reigns everywhere: in you and here by you. Both of Us desire your happiness and your good – for the glory of the Heavenly Father. These wishes of Our Most Holy Hearts bring about an outpouring of Mercy, and this Mercy must be seen, you must be thankful for it, you must trust in it, and you must plead for it for yourselves and for the whole world. We have the Rosary for this purpose, in which we repeat: "Blessed are you amongst women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus." These words are so very important, because they form the beginning of this adoration, which shall be carried on into eternity. They are to be recited with great love, with humility and with happiness, because there on earth you are permitted to recite them. They are the beginning of that which will last throughout eternity – the adoration of Mercy. Misericordias Domini in aeternum cantabo (I will sing of the Mercy of the Lord forever.) We adore this Mercy with these fifteen mysteries. Blessed be the admirable actions in the admirable cause of the Mother Most Admirable! Blessed be the Mercy of God in the admirable privileges of the admirable power of the Lady Most admirable! Blessed be the admirable actions on unknown paths, which lead in an admirable manner those called admirable.

5 Every victory over evil is My victory, because I first received them all from My Son. Every victory over evil advances the coming of My Kingdom. The condition of these victories is the faithful recitation of the Rosary. I am all present in the Rosary – search for Me there. I am all present in the Rosary – there you will find Me.

6 I am truth. All my words are Justice and Truth – as my Son said of Himself that He is the Truth, the Rosary is the Truth and it proclaims the truth. Those who love the Rosary love truth, and in reciting the Rosary piously find the truth. The Truth will be in your thoughts, in your heart, in your speech, or in other words, the Truth will be your thoughts, your recognition and judgments. However, let it be in Me and through Me, through Me in a given manner, the Rosary attains this Truth. And these words will be fulfilled. Qui operantur non peccabunt (Those who are active – do not sin). And the words will be proven true that I am the shortest road to the Truth, to My Son, to God. This the Rosary gives. This is the Rosary. And, this is why I call and plead for the Rosary, and this is why it is so fought against – truly the Rosary.

7 The world is immersed in error. The Rosary is the Truth. It teaches the Truth and it fights for the Truth. Through the recitation of the Rosary, truth sinks into the soul. With the recitation of the Rosary the mind and heart are active; the mind meditates and the heart is inflamed when it clings close to the Mother and Son and also to their friends, who are present in and take part in each mystery. The soul is nourished with Truth and absorbs Truth and then it can overflow to others. Without the Rosary, not only are you without these aids, but there is no protective barrier against being led astray.

This explains the state of the world. Each Mystery reflected upon as a complete entity has strength and purpose. But when all 15 Mysteries are reflected upon they become an army – prepared for war – under My leadership. Whomever prays the Rosary, let them remember this. Let them also remember and know that by reciting the Rosary well, one accomplishes more than if he constructed large edifices or worked on interesting inventions. Frequently the devil is active here. And you must know that he who finds Me – finds life and will attain salvation from the Lord. Let them remember that I am totally in the Rosary; search for me there – there you will find Me. You should be inspired to greater zeal in the recitation of the Rosary with a reminder and encouragement such as this. There must be more Rosaries, and they must be said better, so as to open wide the floodgates of Graces from My Immaculate Heart of Gold, which is soon to be Triumphant. Amen.

8 I am near. I am near to all who call upon Me in spirit and in truth. Search for me on the roads of the Savior – and thus you will find me in the Rosary. Who finds Me – finds life and will attain salvation from the Lord

- It is necessary, that the world knows what is the Rosary.
- It is a search for Me and My Son.
- It is a pursuit of the final goal of saving souls through a life sanctified by the Rosary.
- It is a weapon for battle and a joy in repose.
- It is a condition for victory.
- It is a source which never dries up – it is a source of Grace which is never exhausted.
- This is My will! And My desire! And My demand! This is My gift, a gift of the Mother of God and your Mother, a gift for the poor and for all My children who remain in terrible danger.
- This is a visible sign of the care and seal of the chosen.
- This is a joy of the Angels and happiness of the Saints.
- This is a dread and terror for the conquered demons.
- This is the simplest, shortest, and most secure link between Heaven and earth.
- It is a treasure for the poor and strength for the valiant.
- It is finally the joy of a child who has lovingly completed their duty and hopes for rewards here and hereafter.
- It is a loving, absorption, drop by drop, of the fifteen Mysteries of Redemption, similar to a refreshing rain which is necessary for good soil to produce good fruit.
